

November 2021

Sign Language/Spanish newsletter

Weeks of November 1st and 9th

Spanish: Body Parts and Counting to Ten in Spanish

- ojo—eye
- oreja—ear
- cabeza—head
- mouth—boca
- nariz—nose
- estómago—stomach
- pies—feet
- brazo—arm

During these two weeks, the children will sing "My Hands on My Head (Qué Está Aquí?) by Dr. Jean, and play Don't Get the X, and Disappearing Man. We will also practice counting to ten in Spanish.

Weeks of November 15th and 22nd

Sign Language: Thanksgiving foods and "Thanks a Lot"

Spanish: Counting to 10

- turkey
- corn
- mashed potatoes
- bread
- cranberry sauce
- gravy
- pumpkin pie
- beans
- family
- table
- Thanksgiving

For the second half of November, the children will be signing various Thanksgiving foods. We will be putting on a play using pictures of the food and reviewing the family member signs we learned in September. The children and I will also practice the songs "My Mother is a Baker" and "Thanks a Lot" by Raffi. Last, we will learn the Spanish words for 1-10 and play Memory. .

.